Development of Indian Ports

3275. SHRI D. B. CHANDRE GOWDA: Will the Minister of SURFACE TRANSPORT be pleased to state;

(a) whether the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry has recently urged Government to undertake overall development of Indian ports;

(b) whether it is a fact that due to poor condition of Indian ports, there has been decline in exports besides other transport problems; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof and the steps Government propose to take to develop ports in the counry?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SURFACE TRANSPORT (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) A seminar organised by FICCI in December, 1988 underlined the need for overall development of Indian Ports.

(b) and (c) The development of ports is a continuous process. During the VII Five Year Plan an allocation of Rs. 955 crores was provided for the development of the Ports. The exports from the Major Ports in India in the last 3 years are given below;

(In million tonnes)

1985-86	36.73
1986-87	39.79
1987-88	40.14

This shows that there has been no decline in exports through Major Ports.
